

Titus

CHAPTER 3

- 1 Put them in mind to be subject to principalities and powers, to obey magistrates, to be ready to every good work,
- 2 To speak evil of no man, to be no brawlers, but gentle, showing all meekness unto all men.
- 3 For we ourselves also were sometimes foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving divers lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another.
- 4 But after that the kindness and love of God our Saviour toward man appeared,
- 5 Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to His mercy He saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost;
- 6 Which He shed on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Saviour;
- 7 That being justified by His grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life.
- 8 This is a faithful saying, and these things I will that you affirm constantly, that they which have believed in God should be careful to maintain good works. These things are good and profitable unto men.
- 9 But avoid foolish questions, and genealogies, and contentions, and strivings about the law; for they are unprofitable and vain.
- 10 A man that is a heretic after the first and second admonition reject;
- 11 Knowing that he that is such is subverted, and sins, being condemned of himself.
- 12 When I shall send Artemas unto you, or Tychicus, be diligent to come unto me to Nicopolis: for I have determined there to winter.
- 13 Bring Zenas the lawyer and Apollos on their journey diligently, that nothing be wanting unto them.
- 14 And let our's also learn to maintain good works for necessary uses, that they be not unfruitful.
- 15 All that are with me salute you. Greet them that love us in the faith. Grace be with you all. Amen.
